O HAUPT VOLL BLUT UND WUNDEN. Max Leo Haastler, 1864.

The image shows the musical score for the hymn 'O Haupt voll Blut und Wunden'. It consists of three systems of music, each with a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment (bass clef). The music is in 4/4 time and G major. The lyrics are printed below the first system.

1 O sacred Head, surrounded
By Crowns of piercing thorns!
O bleeding Head, so wounded,
No shame, and put to scorn!
Death's pallid face o'er Thine,
The glow of life decayed,
Yet Angel-hoofs were Thine,
And tremble as they pass.

2 Thy sorrows and thy pain
Is wiper'd up and gone,
And in Thy wondrous Figure
I see death drawing on:
O Agony and Dying!
O Love to sinners lost!
Join, all grace supplying,
Turn Thou Thy Face on me.

3 In this Thy bitter Passion,
O God Shepherd, think of me
With Thy most sweet compassion,
Unswerving though I be:
Beneath Thy Cross abiding,
For ever would I rest,
In Thy dear love residing,
And with Thy Precious blood.

The image shows the musical score for the hymn 'Lead us, great teacher Paul'. It consists of three systems of music, each with a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment (bass clef). The music is in 4/4 time and G major. The lyrics are printed below the first system.

1. Lead us, great teacher Paul, in wisdom's ways,
2. Praise, blessing, maj-esty, thro' end-less days,
And lift our hearts with thine to His high throne,
Be to the Tri-ni-ty im-mor-tal gl'ry,
Till faith beholds the clear me-rid-i-an blaze,
Who in pure u-ni-ty pre-sent-ly reigns.

First Sunday of Advent When the peaceful stillness surrounded everything and the night in its swift course passed in half, Your almighty word, from the royal throne of limited heaven, a fierce warrior, to the doomed earth, Wisdom 15:14-16a As we begin this season of Advent, let us reflect on the previous quotation from the Book of Wisdom. It is a prophetic reference to the Incarnation. The Divine Word of God, the Second Person of the Holy Trinity, took on a human nature to redeem us and bring us back into the family of God. Reflect on how God leaps into our world in the Incarnation and birth of Jesus. Use this biblical quote throughout Advent to reflect on the preparation for the celebration of the feast of Christmas. Come, Lord Jesus, and deliver us. Father Lee Roos What Differences We May See During Advent When the Advent season comes, there are some changes that people often notice in the Church. Probably the most obvious of them is that the color of the clothes changes to violet. On the third Sunday of Advent, which is also called Gaudete Sunday, as the time of Advent is half over, the joy of the Nativity begins to break in and that day you can wear pink garments. In addition, the hymn Glory to God in the High is omitted at Mass, and one will find that there is a certain moderation in the decoration of the altar. Although flowers may still be used, the decoration of the altar should not express the full joy of the Nativity of the Lord. The same can be said of the use of organ and other musical instruments. A homily on the working days of Advent is strongly recommended for the faithful who regularly participate in the celebration of Mass. Particularly prominent biblical figures Advent time is the Santisima Virgin Maria, the prophet Isaías and San Juan Bautista. This is a service order planning template for funeral music: the toughest part of a catholic funeral service. The worksheet has a line for each element that generally occurs in a liturgy of funeral dough, and space to record the details: what readings and hymns, which are doing, in what key is the music. It can be used together with another funeral planning sites / advisory guidelines, to record the specific options for your ceremony. It is complementary to the brochure template of the massive participants, which can be used to make a brochure / help for the people who attend the Mass. The MS Word version: allows you to change the contents, for example, add the PDF files from FEASTSÁ local: Print with exactly the same format you see on the screen to download a file, click on a link above. You will be transferred to a page that can print it or save a copy of it on your own computer. This form is designed so that everything fits two pages and is listed each important action: anyone can see at a glance what happens, and when, during the funeral mass in a Catholic church. It is for: family and friends, and whoever helps them plan to plan the lithiatric details of the funeral service men who need to know what they need to play / sing, and when there is "visual audio and other technical people", who need to know what team is needed and when someone else (for example, sacristans, altar servers, photographers) who need to know exactly what is happening. And it can be useful for other people who have a in the service, but they are nervous to know when they should carry it out (for example, readers, palberries). See Catholic Funeral Templates: A general description to obtain more information about the general funeral structure. Consult your local place / ministers during funeral planning, to make sure of local requirements and customs á because the general funeral liturgy may have three parts, there may be something that does not happen where they are shown in the template. This template is not at all a substitute for the official ritual books that have detailed texts and requirements for public worship times. Rather, it is an instrument that people who take part in the liturgical service (leaders, readers, musicians, technicians, sacristans, ushers, etc.) can use to understand who does what and when. If there is any discrepancy between the ritual book for your area and the template, then the template should be changed to fit the ritual: The Microsoft Word file is for this, while the PDF version will always print well. Make a copy of the template by right-clicking on these icons, and choosing the option (e.g., save target as, save file as) to save the file to your computer.
